MEMO

Level 2

1. Provide two reasons as to why you think the title of this article might attract a reader's attention. (2)

The headline might attract a reader's attention as it contains a striking and unusual quote that could make one curious to find out more about why this person feels she is not an astronaut; readers might be interested in the catchy idea of a "Booker-winning space novel". Accept the use of "so" juxtaposed with more formal idea of astronauts. Must have two reasons, explained well.

Marks	Skills
2	The excellent response: • is complete and accurate.
1½	The good response: • is partially complete and accurate. or • is complete and mostly accurate.
1–0	The incomplete response: • Includes only one half of the required response or is inaccurate.

Level 2 and 4

2.1. Explain why Samantha Harvey felt that she was "trespassing in space". (2)

The idea of trespassing has associations of 'forbidden' territory, being somewhere you shouldn't be. She might have felt that she was not allowed to write about being in space, as she had never experienced this before - it wasn't her territory. She didn't have first hand knowledge of being in space.

2	The excellent response: • is complete and accurate.
1½	The good response: • is partially complete and accurate. or • is complete and mostly accurate.
1–0	The incomplete response: • Includes only one half of the required response or is inaccurate.

Level 2

2.2. Despite initially feeling she was “trespassing in space”, what made her continue to write the novel? (2)

She felt that her draft had ïntegrity and pulse” and she felt that if she wrote it differently, in a way that’s different to the way astronauts write about their time in space” then she could have a good story.

Marks	Skills
2	The excellent response: • is complete and accurate.
1½	The good response: • is partially complete and accurate. or • is complete and mostly accurate.
1–0	The incomplete response: • Includes only one half of the required response or is inaccurate.

Level 2 and 4

3. “So she climbed back in and achieved lift-off.” (paragraph 2)
Identify the figure of speech used in this sentence and discuss why it is effective in the context of the article. (3)

Her picking up the story again after having abandoned it is compared to her climbing into a rocket and lifting off. The metaphor is effective as it shows that she launched herself successfully by starting up with the book again – just as a rocket might take off in an impressive way, so her book was successful and has meant she has risen in prominence in the book world.

Marks	Skills
3	The excellent response: • engages with all aspects of the question and provides the required evidence. • indicates a clear understanding of the significance of each element.
2½	The good response: • is multi-structural, but not integrated. or • is convincing but incomplete. • provides evidence if required.
2	The average response: • is either one-dimensional, without sufficient evidence, or is superficial and general. • does not provide enough relevant justification. • demonstrates that the candidate understands the issue.
1½	The incomplete response: • demonstrates a flawed or incomplete understanding of what has been asked. • indicates an understanding of the text/s. • attempts to use the text/s to answer the question, but reasoning is concrete or simplistic.
1–0	The inadequate response: • indicates only partial/limited/no understanding of this aspect of the text/s

Level 2 and 4

4. "Time is different in space." (paragraph 3)
Explain how Harvey has structured her novel to capture the idea that "time is different in space". (2)

The story takes place over one day but it is made of different space days as the sun rises every 90 minutes in the space station. The book is divided into 16 chapters each of which records one orbit of earth - a 90 minute journey.

Marks	Skills
2	The excellent response: • is complete and accurate.
1½	The good response: • is partially complete and accurate. or • is complete and mostly accurate.
1–0	The incomplete response: • Includes only one half of the required response or is inaccurate.

Level 6

5. Refer to paragraph 3.
"Munificence" is the "quality of being extremely generous". Give reasons why you feel that setting "mundane tasks" in contrast to the "munificence" of space would be an effective story telling technique. (3)

Perhaps the mundane tasks are set against the "munificence" of the universe to highlight the relative unimportance and smallness of these tasks (which must seem even smaller inside the capsule). Some of the tasks like dealing with blocked toilets would also be unpleasant. These qualities would be contrasted with the enormous importance or significance of the universe and its extreme "generosity" and beauty in providing us with life.

Level 1

6. "Each of the six characters are given only slivers of backstory: Chie's mother has died; Anton has fallen out of love with his wife; Shaun longs for his." (paragraph 3)
Explain the use of the colon and semi-colons in this sentence. (2)

The colon introduces an explanation about what is written before it. The semicolons separate a list of the snippets of information about three of the astronauts.

Marks	Skills
2	The excellent response: • is complete and accurate.
1½	The good response: • is partially complete and accurate. or • is complete and mostly accurate.
1–0	The incomplete response: • Includes only one half of the required response or is inaccurate.

Level 1, 4 and 6

7. Discuss what the diction in paragraph 4 reveals about Harvey's attitude or feelings towards the Earth. Quote to support your answer. (3)

She has conflicting feelings about Earth. Expressions like "love letter"; "celebration" and "Earth's beauty" show that she is enormously appreciative of Earth and wishes to acknowledge her admiration. However, she also has feelings of grief about the way that humans are treating the planet. This is conveyed in expressions like a sense of sorrow" and "a pang of loss".

Marks	Skills
3	The excellent response: • engages with all aspects of the question and provides the required evidence. • indicates a clear understanding of the significance of each element.
2½	The good response: • is multi-structural, but not integrated. or • is convincing but incomplete.

	• provides evidence if required.
2	The average response: • is either one-dimensional, without sufficient evidence, or is superficial and general. • does not provide enough relevant justification. • demonstrates that the candidate understands the issue.
1½	The incomplete response: • demonstrates a flawed or incomplete understanding of what has been asked. • indicates an understanding of the text/s. • attempts to use the text/s to answer the question, but reasoning is concrete or simplistic.
1–0	The inadequate response: • indicates only partial/limited/no understanding of this aspect of the text/s

Level 4 and 6

8. In your own words, describe how Harvey took "the idea of an armchair traveller to a new frontier"(paragraph 4). (3)

She had images of the International Space Station playing all the time on her computer and this allowed her to 'journey' into space so that she could feel as if she was there, even though she was sitting in the comfort of her home.

Marks	Skills
3	The excellent response: • engages with all aspects of the question and provides the required evidence. • indicates a clear understanding of the significance of each element.
2½	The good response: • is multi-structural, but not integrated. or • is convincing but incomplete. • provides evidence if required.
2	The average response: • is either one-dimensional, without sufficient evidence, or is superficial and general. • does not provide enough relevant justification. • demonstrates that the candidate understands the issue.

1–0	The inadequate response: • indicates only partial/limited/no understanding of this aspect of the text/s

Level 4 and 6

9. Evaluate why you think Harvey found going to space virtually such a consolation for her both during lockdown and after it. Refer closely to the passage in your answer. (3)

She could pretend she was elsewhere in her imagination and look down on Earth and in so doing she could appreciate the beauty of the planet. Seeing it from a different perspective meant that she did not have to engage with negative emotions about the way humans are behaving. It was a way of escaping from this.

Level 6

10. Refer to the book cover (Text 2).
Analyse the book cover (Text 2) and decide how effective it is at capturing the essence of Harvey's book that we have learned about in the article. Refer to both Text 1 and Text 2 in your answer. (3)

The cover reflects a sense of mystery, conveyed by the fuzzy whirls and shapes that overlap one another. Earth is the only clear image and this is shown as it would be viewed from space. In Text 1, this is echoed when she writes that she could zoom out into space and "just look at its beauty". The sharpness of Earth's image also suggests its significance, which is referred to in the text too: "While (the book) might be set in space, its subject is Earth". Accept other answers.

1–0	The inadequate response: • indicates only partial/limited/no understanding of this aspect of the text/s

11. Refer to the cartoon (Text 3).

Level 1 and 4

11.1. Discuss the technique used in this cartoon to convey humour. (2)

The cartoonist uses a pun to convey humour. The word vacuum has two meanings, referring to both the vacuum cleaner and to the vast emptiness of space.

Level 4

11.2. Explain why the onomatopoeia is written in bold, large capital letters. (2)

The onomatopoeia, reflecting the sound of the vacuum cleaner, is written in this way to show how loud and overwhelming the noise is from the vacuum cleaner: it drowns out other sounds. This would also support what is said to Thandi, that “no one can hear you in space”

12. Refer to Texts 4 and 5 below.

Level 6

12.1. Evaluate which cartoon (Text 4 or Text 5) you feel Harvey could refer to in order to further support her views expressed in the article. Provide reasons for your answer. (3)

The theme in Text 4 is that climate change is resulting in global warming on Earth, which means it might become uninhabitable for humans and more habitable for alien species. In Text 1, references are also made to climate change in the sadness that Harvey feels regarding “the things that we are doing to Earth”.
OR:
In Text 5, the theme is the unnecessary expenditure on space exploration, which could be more usefully spent on making Earth a better place. Space exploration is mentioned in Text 1: Harvey could usethis to support her view that money should be spent on improving conditions on Earth.
